What is “weather” and how is weather measured?
What are some tools meteorologists use to measure changes in weather?
Why does the weather vary from city to city in Arizona and from city to city across the United States?
What is the difference between weather and climate?