Grade 4 - Weather (2 weeks)

Overview

The Weather and Climate Unit is a 2-week unit that reflects the Arizona Science Standard at the 4th grade level. The six investigations focus on the causes of weather, tools used to study the weather, meteorology, climate, weather maps, and seasons. Additionally, students will create their own weather station to collect weather data.